STATEWIDE NON-PROFIT MOVES TO ROBBINSVILLE

Robbinsville, NJ - The Family Resource Network (FRN) will be officially opening on Thursday, June 25, 2009 at its new headquarters located on Rt. 130 North in Robbinsville. All local businesses and residents are invited to attend. With six offices across the state, FRN's administrative office was formerly located at Waterfront Park in Trenton for over ten years before relocating to Robbinsville this past March.

The open house will take place from 4:00pm – 7:00pm and will include a ribbon cutting ceremony attended by the Mayor of Hamilton, John Bencivengo, as well as the Mayor of Robbinsville, David Fried. In addition, light refreshments will be served and an opportunity for guests to speak to employees of FRN and its four affiliate organizations will be available. Autism Family Services of NJ, Caregivers of NJ, Epilepsy Foundation of NJ and the Family Support Center of NJ are all statewide non-profit agency's which provide access, answers, and action for individuals living with developmental disabilities and chronic illness.

FRN and its affiliates have over 50 successful programs in New Jersey and work tirelessly to provide a voice in the community for those who need it the most. Individuals interested in attending the Open House are asked to RSVP at 609-392-4900 ext 202. The Family Resource Network's exact location is 1 AAA Drive, Suite 203, Robbinsville, NJ 08691.

The Family Resource Network is a family-focused, community-based organization that aims to provide individual and family support throughout the life span of people with disabilities and chronic illness. The Family Resource Network is comprised of four affiliate organizations including: Autism Family Services of New Jersey, Caregivers of New Jersey, the Epilepsy Foundation of New Jersey, and the Family Support Center of New Jersey. The Family Resource Network has six offices across the state to reach all New Jersey residents. Please visit us on the web at www.familyresourcenetwork.org.
